

A globe showing Australia and the Pacific region is in the top left. A laptop displaying a blue screen with a flag is in the top center. A stack of colorful books is in the top right.

RESEARCH FELLOW

Fixed Term (3 year) Appointment

The Centre for Geomechanics & Railway Engineering has an outstanding record of research achievements with a worldwide reputation. The Centre is part of the Australian Research Council (ARC) Centre of Excellence in Geotechnics.

We are seeking a high calibre candidate to work on a three-year geotechnical project "Densification and Degradation of Ballast under Cyclic Train Loading". You must have a first degree in Civil Engineering or related discipline and a Doctoral degree in geotechnical engineering.

Visit employment.uow.edu.au for a full position description with Selection Criteria. You must address the Selection Criteria as part of your application.

Contact: Professor Buddhima Indraratna on + 61 2 4221 3046

Applications Close: 15 February 2013

Reference No: 24455

DISCOVER/ENQUIRE/ACHIEVE
CONNECT: UOW EMPLOYMENT

UNIVERSITY OF WOLLONGONG

