

Dear colleagues,

We are organizing a mini-symposium (MS) within The 2017 World Congress on Advances in Structural Engineering and Mechanics (ASEM17) (<http://asem17.org/index.php>) that will be held from August 28 to September 1st, 2017 in Seoul (Ilsan), Korea.

The topic of the MS is “Geotechnics from civil engineering to mining engineering”. The objective is to promote exchanges between academic and industrial researchers as well as practitioners working in different fields related with geotechnics (civil, transportation, environmental, and mining geotechnics.).

As esteemed colleagues, you are cordially invited to submit an abstract on any of your unpublished work via the online submission system not later than March 31, 2017 and your full paper (upon acceptance of your abstract) before May 31, 2017.

Please select “[ICTUS17] Tunnels and Underground Spaces” at the stage “Select your Conference” and “session #421” at the stage “Select Mini Symposium”.

We expect papers that would present recent research developments in a broad range of topics in geotechnics. Case studies and papers dealing with challenging geotechnical issues will be particularly appreciated. Papers illustrating innovative techniques or solutions as well as research on recent trends or future prospects are highly encouraged.

Thank you for your consideration.

If you have any question or if you need any more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Hope to see you in Seoul in August 2017.

Best wishes!
